CHAPTER 82.

[Published March 16, 1869.]

AN ACT in relation to the satisfaction of judgments of record in the circuit and county courts of this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Attorney of record may satisfy judgment at any time within five years.

SECTION 1. Any attorney of record of any party in any action in any of the circuit courts of this state, or in any of the county courts of this state having civil jurisdiction, who may obtain or has obtained any judgment in any of said courts, is hereby authorized and empowered to satisfy the same of record at any time within five years after the docketing of such judgment, subject to the same limitations as are now provided by section 43 of chapter 132 of the revised statutes.

Duty of clerk of court in satisfying judgments.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of each clerk of the circuit courts aforesaid, or of the county courts as aforesaid, whenever any judgment shall be discharged by entry of satisfaction on the docket of judgment in the office of such clerk, to witness such satisfaction, and to make an entry thereon as follows, to wit: "Satisfied in my presence this _____ day of _____, A. D. _____," and duly sign his name thereto as such clerk.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 5, 1869.

CHAPTER 83.

[Published March 6, 1869.]

AN ACT to amend section 1 of chapter 140 of the general laws of 1866, entitled "an act to amend sections 3 and 5 of chapter 208 of the general laws of 1859, entitled 'an act to amend chapter 10 of the revised statutes, of state officers, and chapter 28 of the revised statutes, of common schools.'"

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter 140 of the general laws of 1866 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: There is hereby appropriated annually to the superintendent of public instruction, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to defray traveling expenses in making official visits as required by law, said appropriation to be drawn quarterly in advance, as the salaries of state officers are drawn. Amended.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and [after] its passage and publication.
