

CHAPTER 87.

[Published March 22, 1870.]

AN ACT to provide for the apportionment of school moneys to towns in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The boards of supervisors of those towns which have not raised by order of the county boards of supervisors, a sum sufficient to entitle them to an apportionment of school moneys for the year 1870, are hereby authorized and directed to transfer from the general fund to the school fund of their respective towns, the amounts in which said towns are deficient; and upon the receipt by the state superintendent of public instruction of the certificate of any town clerk that the requisite amount has been thus transferred, he shall apportion to said towns the full sum of school moneys to which such towns would have been entitled, provided the county boards had levied upon such town the amounts required by law. ^{May transfer fund.*}

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1870.

CHAPTER 88.

[Published March 23, 1870.]

AN ACT to provide for the recovery of taxes unlawfully assessed and collected.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person aggrieved by the levy and collection of any unlawful tax assessed against him in ^{May maintain action.}

any town, may have and maintain his action against such town for the recovery of all moneys so unlawfully levied and collected from him, and proceed therein to find judgment.

Towns shall be credited with amount paid over.

SECTION 2. In case any town shall have paid such judgment after having paid over to the county treasurer, the state, county and county school tax, levied and collected as part of such unlawful tax, such town shall be credited by the county treasurer on the settlement with the town treasurer of the taxes for the ensuing year, the whole amount of such state, county and county school tax, so paid into the county treasury.

State treasurer shall allow amount to counties.

SECTION 3. The county treasurer shall also be allowed by the state treasurer the amount of state tax so illegally collected and paid to said state treasurer, on settlement by the county treasurer with said state treasurer of state taxes of the ensuing year, after judgment and collection thereof.

SECTION 4. This act shall not have any retro active effect, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1870.

CHAPTER 89.

[Published March 17, 1870.]

AN ACT to constitute and re-organize the twelfth judicial circuit; to change the limits of the first and ninth judicial circuits, and to change the time for holding the terms of the circuit court for the county of Jefferson.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Detached and ferred into twelfth circuit.

SECTION 1. The counties of Rock and Green are hereby detached from the first judicial circuit, and the county of Jefferson from the ninth judicial circuit, and said counties of Rock, Green and Jefferson shall constitute a judicial circuit, which shall be known and designated as the twelfth judicial circuit.
