

CHAPTER 90.

[Published March 17, 1870.]

AN ACT to establish lumber district number nine in the state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

District No. 9
established.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of inspecting and regulating the survey and measurement of logs, timber and lumber on the Chippewa river below the village of Durand and Beef Slough, from the Chippewa river to the Mississippi river and thence [along] the Mississippi river to the mouth of Trempealeau river, are hereby constituted a lumber district to be known and called lumber district number nine.

To what provisions subject.

SECTION 2. Said lumber district number nine shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 167, general laws of 1864, entitled an act to establish lumber districts in this state and to regulate the traffice in logs, timber and lumber in said districts.

Where office of inspector to be kept.

SECTION 3. The inspector of said lumber district number nine shall keep his office in the town of Nelson in the county of Buffalo.

Repealed.

SECTION 4. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; and this act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 16, 1870.