

CHAPTER 114.

[Published March 31, 1871.]

AN ACT to amend certain sections of chapter 152 of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to authorize the county supervisors to lay out and establish highways in certain cases."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 152 of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to authorize the county supervisors to lay out and establish highways in certain cases," is hereby amended by adding at the end of section 130 of said chapter, the following: The survey and order establishing the highway, together with the award of damages to the owners and occupants of the lands on and across which said highway or any part thereof shall be laid out and established, as mentioned in section 130 of said chapter, shall be filed in the office of the town clerk of each town into or through which said highway may be so established within ten days after deciding upon said highway.

Sec. 130 amended.

Survey and order to be filed.

SECTION 2. Section 132 of said chapter 152 is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section the following: If any owner of lands through which a highway shall be laid out or altered by said county supervisors shall not be satisfied with the sum awarded for damages by such county supervisors, he may within thirty days after the filing of the award of damages in the office of the town clerk, as provided in the preceding section, apply to a justice of the peace of an adjoining town for a jury to assess and appraise such damages; such application shall be in writing, describing the premises, and any number of persons in said town claiming damages on account of such highway may join in such application. The party appealing shall serve on two of the town supervisors of such town, at least six days before the time fixed for making such application, a notice in writing specifying therein the name of the justice to whom, and the time and place when and where such application shall be made.

Sec. 132 amended.

If owner not satisfied with award, may apply for jury.

How remaining proceedings conducted.

SECTION 3. The remaining proceedings shall be conducted in like manner and in all respects conform to sections 62, 63, 64, 65 and 66 of said chapter 152; and it is further provided, that the word, "supervisors," in said sections 62, 63, 64, 65 and 66 of said chapter 152 shall be construed to mean town supervisors, and not county supervisors, for the purpose of determining on said damages.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1871.

CHAPTER 115.

[Published April 4, 1871.]

AN ACT to consolidate all acts now in force for the government and management of the State Prison, and to amend the same.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Shall be the general penitentiary and prison.

SECTION 1. The State Prison at Waupun, in the county of Dodge, shall be the general penitentiary and prison of the state of Wisconsin, for the reformation, as well as the punishment of offenders, in which shall be confined, employed at hard labor, and governed in the manner hereinafter directed, all offenders who have been committed and sentenced according to law to the punishment of solitary imprisonment, or imprisonment therein at hard labor.

State prison commissioner.

SECTION 2. The organization of the State Prison shall consist of one commissioner, who shall be known and styled, state prison commissioner, and who shall be elected by the people at the general election in November, at the same time and in the same manner as the governor and other state officers, and who shall hold his office for the term of two years from the first day of January next succeeding said elections, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Said commissioner shall be warden and treasurer of the prison.
