

CHAPTER 128.

[Published March 25, 1871.]

AN ACT to amend section four of chapter 175 of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to amend sections 6, 15 and 29 of chapter 130 of the general laws of 1868, entitled 'an act to provide for the assessment of property for taxation, and the levy of taxes thereon.'"

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section four of chapter 175 of the general laws of 1869, entitled "an act to amend sections 6, 15 and 29 of chapter 130 of the general laws of 1868, entitled 'an act to provide for the assessment of property for taxation, and the levy of taxes thereon,'" is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Section 4. There shall be annually elected in each town and ward of any city or incorporated village, when such ward contains an assessment district, at the annual town or city election, one assessor, who shall hold his office for the term of one year, excepting in cities where a different number of assessors and a different manner of electing or appointing the same is or may be provided by the charter, or the laws amendatory thereof: provided, however, that in any town desiring a larger number of assessors the town board of supervisors in said town, at their last meeting previous to the annual town meeting, may determine the number to be elected, not exceeding three, and it shall be the duty of the town clerks to state in their election notices the number of assessors to be elected. When there is more than one assessor in any town, incorporated village or city, they shall, in the discharge of their official duties, act together as an assessment board; and when there is more than one assessor, the concurrence of at least two members of such board shall be necessary to determine any matter upon which such board is required to act." Amended.
Annual election of assessors.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 23, 1871.
