[Published February 18, 1871.]

AN ACT to authorize the appointment of phonographic reporters for the circuit court of the several counties in the sixth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for the judge of the circuit court of the sixth judicial circuit to appoint, from time to time, as the exigencies of business may seem to warrant, two phonographic reporters for the circuit court of each of the several counties in said circuit, who shall be sworn officers of the court for which they shall have been appointed, and who shall be skilled in the art of short-hand reporting, one of whom shall attend upon such court at each term thereof, when required by the court or judge thereof, and shall discharge such duties as the said court or judge may direct.

May appoint phonographic reporters.

SECTION 2. Such reporters shall be allowed such daily compensation as shall be fixed by the judge of the court, not exceeding ten dollars per day for each day's attendance upon such court, when required by the judge thereof to attend, which shall be certified, audited and paid in like manner as is provided by law for the payment of the sheriff for attending upon the court: provided, but one such reporter shall be employed at the same time.

Their fees.

Additional fees for copies.

SECTION 3. In addition to the above compensation, such phonographic reporters may charge and collect, as fees, ten cents per folio (of one hundred words) for making and furnishing transcripts of their short-hand notes of the testimony and other proceedings of the court in the trial of any action, to be paid for by the party requiring such transcript to be made. In the trial of criminal cases, the court may, in its discretion, order such transcripts to be made, certified, audited and paid for in the same manner as the reporter's per diem compensation. In such cases the reporter's notes shall be written out in full, and filed with the clerk of the court.

May be removed by judge.

SECTION 4. The judge of said court may, in his discretion, remove such reporters, or either of them, and may fill any vacancy caused by such removal, or happening from any other cause.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 17, 1871.

CHAPTER 18.

AN ACT to provide for holding normal institutes in the state of Wisconsin, and to appropriate a certain sum of money for the purposes therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Normal institutes to be held.

SECTION 1. Normal institutes for the instruction of teachers shall be held each year in such counties of the state as may be designated by the state superintendent, with the advice of the board of regents of normal schools, preference being given to such counties as receive least direct benefits from the normal schools.
