CHAPTER 82.

[Published March 18, 1871.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 28 of the general laws of 1860, entitled "an act to enable foreign executors and administrators to sue in the state of Wisconsin," and chapter 20 of the general laws of 1869, amending said chapter 28.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever any foreign executor or administrator, under and pursuant to the provisions of the first section of chapter 28 of the general laws of 1860, as amended by chapter 20 of the general laws of 1869, shall, at a foreclosure sale under a judgment in an action in which he as such executor or administrator is plaintiff, purchase the mortgaged premises or any part thereof, and under such sale acquire title to, or receive a deed of said premises or any part thereof, he may sell and convey the same for such price or prices, and on such terms as he shall deem best, and the money arising from such sale or sales he shall hold as such executor or administrator for the benefit of the estate which he represents, the same as he would have held the moneys secured by the mortgage foreclosed, if such moneys had been paid to him without foreclosure. And any foreign executor or administrator who heretofore at such foreclosure sale purchased the mortgaged premises or any part thereof, and has acquired or shall acquire title thereto under such sale or sales, may in like manner sell and convey the premises so by him purchased as such executor or administrator, holding the proceeds of sale for the benefit of the estate.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force from and after its publication.

Approved March 14, 1871.

CHAPTER 83.
