

SECTION 3. The treasury agent may, in his discretion, appoint an assistant who shall take the oath of office required by the constitution, which shall be filed in the office of the governor, and shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties to said treasury agent, in such penal sum and with such conditions as said treasury agent may prescribe; and such assistant may perform such duties as are required of the treasury agent.

May appoint assistant who shall take oath and give bond.

SECTION 4. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to audit and allow the account of the treasury agent at the rate of thirty-three and one third per cent. of the amount which said treasury agent may cause to be collected and paid into the state treasury as fees for licenses, which sum shall be compensation in full for his services and those of his assistant: provided, that necessary stationery, postage, blanks and advertising for the performance of his duties shall be furnished by the state in the usual manner.

His compensation—how audited.

Stationery etc. to be furnished.

SECTION 5. There is hereby appropriated out of any money received into the state treasury on account of such license fees, a sufficient sum of money to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Appropriated.

SECTION 6. Chapter 176 of the general laws of 1867, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1872.

CHAPTER 178.

[Published April 4, 1872.]

AN ACT to amend section eighty-six of chapter one hundred and fifty-five of general laws of 1863, entitled "an act to codify the laws of this state relating to common schools."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eighty-six of chapter one hundred and fifty-five of general laws of 1863, entitled an act to codify the laws of this state relating to common schools, is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

Amended.

 There shall be chosen at the general election held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, and biennially thereafter, a county superintendent of schools for each county of the state, who shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first day of January succeeding his election, and shall hold the same for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. In each county of the state having over fifteen thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding census, the county board of supervisors may, at any meeting of said board, in any year, determine by resolution to remain in force until rescinded, that there shall be two superintendents for such county, and said board of supervisors shall thereupon divide said county into two districts, to be called respectively, "superintendent district number one," and "superintendent district number two." They shall also determine over which of the two districts, the superintendent already elected shall have jurisdiction. The state superintendent shall appoint a superintendent for the other district, who shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified. While such resolution shall remain unrescinded, each such district shall elect a county superintendent for such district, to be called "county superintendent of schools for district number one or two," as the case may be. When a county contains more than one senate district, each such senate district shall constitute a superintendent district to [be] numbered as above provided, except senate districts lying wholly within incorporated cities, which may have elected, as provided for in section ninety-six of this act. Such county superintendents of schools for districts, shall, within the limits of their respective districts, have the same powers and duties as other county superintendents. Their terms of office shall be the same, and their election shall be conducted and canvassed as provided in this act for the election of county superintendents; and all the provisions of this act or of any other law of this state in relation to county superintendents of schools, shall apply to the county superintendents of schools for districts, unless the latter shall be expressly exempted therefrom.

Shall choose county superintendent.

May choose two, and their classification.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 25, 1872.

CHAPTER 179.

[Published April 5, 1872.]

AN ACT relating to town treasurers and prescribing their duties in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All taxes levied upon any land in this state shall be and remain a lien upon all logs or timber cut upon such lands subsequent to the assessment of such tax upon such lands; and it shall be the duty of the town or county treasurer as the case may be, to pursue and levy upon said logs or timber, wherever the same may be, and collect said tax by distress and sale of such logs and timber, in the manner provided by law for the distress and sale of personal property for the payment of taxes: provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to the land of persons residing in the town where such land is situated.

Shall remain a lien upon logs, timber, etc.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1872.