

CHAPTER 157.

[Published March 18, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176), of the revised statutes, entitled, "Of arrests."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eighteen (18), of chapter one hundred and seventy-six (176), of the revised statutes, entitled, "Of the arrest and examination of offenders of this state," is hereby amended by inserting after the word recognizance in the eighth (8th) line of said section eighteen (18), the following words: And when required by the district attorney or court, shall give a full description of such land, and in what county such land is situated, so that said section, when thus amended, shall read as follows: Section 18. The amount of penalty of the recognizance or bail bond, shall be in such sum as, in the opinion of the officer taking the same, will secure the appearance of the accused for trial. The recognizance shall be signed by the accused and at least two sureties, who shall severally swear that they each own and possess unincumbered real estate within this state, not exempt from sale or execution, to at least double in value the amount of the recognizance; and when required by the district attorney or court, shall give a full description of such land, and in what county such land is situated. Such recognizance shall, immediately after its execution, be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and docketed upon the docket of judgments therein, in the same manner judgments are required to be docketed in such office. The said recognizance from the time the same is executed, before such judge, shall bind and be a charge upon the lands and tenements, real estate and chattels real, of the parties executing such recognizance, whether owned by them jointly or either of them severally, and wherever the same may be situated in this state, until such recognizance shall be fully paid and satisfied, or otherwise discharged by due course of law.
