

How calendar of causes shall be made.

SECTION 2. In making up the calendar of causes noticed for argument at each term of the supreme court, the clerk shall hereafter arrange the lists by circuits, as provided by rule ten (10), of the supreme court rules, as published in Taylor's statutes, beginning the next list with the second circuit, and thereafter continuing the arrangement of such list the same as though said section seven (7) had never been passed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 14, 1876.

CHAPTER 20.

[Published February 17, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend section 25, of chapter 119, of the revised statutes, entitled "General provisions concerning courts of record; of the powers and duties of judges, and of attorneys and officers of courts."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-five, of chapter one hundred and nineteen, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: Nor shall any judge of any of the circuit courts of this state, while holding such office of circuit judge, be in any manner engaged or act as attorney or counsel in any action, cause, or proceeding pending in, or which he has reason to believe will be brought in any of the courts of this state, nor give advice or opinion therein, upon penalty of removal from office, so that said section when so amended will read as follows: Section 25. No judge or commissioner shall be allowed to demand or receive any fees or compensation for services as such judge, commissioner, or judicial officers, except where fees or other compensation are expressly given by law; and no judge, commissioner, or other judicial officers shall be allowed to give advice to parties litigant in any matter or action pending before such judge or officer, or which he has reason to believe will be brought before him for decision, or draft or prepare any papers or other proceedings relating to any such matter or action, except when ex-

Judges and commissioners not allowed to receive fees or give advice in certain cases.

pressly authorized by law; nor shall any judge of any of the circuit courts of this state, while holding such office of circuit judge, be in any manner engaged or act as attorney or counsel in any action, cause, or proceeding pending in, or which he has reason to believe will be brought in any of the courts of this state, nor give advice or opinion therein, upon penalty of removal from office.

Shall not act as attorney or counsel.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 14, 1876.

CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT to amend section one (1), of chapter three hundred and six (306), of the general laws of 1875, entitled, "An act to transfer the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, to the custody of the regents of the State University."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one (1), of chapter three hundred and six (306), of the general laws of 1875, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1.

Amended.

The regents of the University of Wisconsin shall succeed to the custody and ownership of the property known as the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, both real and personal, and they are hereby authorized to use the same for any purpose which they may deem expedient for the interest of the university; or, if in their judgment it shall seem best, they may sell and dispose of said property, in whole or in part, and use the proceeds of such sale for the purpose of furnishing "Science Hall," to erect an assembly hall upon the grounds of the university, or for other purposes. Said regents are hereby authorized to make the necessary conveyances by deed or otherwise to enable them to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Regents of University may dispose of Soldiers' Orphans' Home.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 14, 1876.