

CHAPTER 268.

[Published March 30, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and sixty-four, of the laws of 1873, entitled, "An act to incorporate the city of Fort Howard," approved March 14, 1873.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

SECTION 1. That section three, of chapter one, of said act is hereby amended so as to read: The said city shall be divided into six wards, as follows, to-wit: All that part of said city lying north of Donsman's claim shall be known and constitute the first ward. All that part of said city lying between the north line of private claim number one, and the north line of Donsman's claim shall be called and known as the second ward; all that part of said city lying between Callahan north line and the north line of private claim number one, shall be called and known as the third ward; all that part of said city lying between Callahan's north line on the north, and the south line of Arndt's first addition to "Fort Howard," and the south line of the vacant strip on the south, shall be called and known as the fourth ward; all that part of said city between the south line of Arndt's first addition to Fort Howard and the south line of the vacant strip on the north, and the north line of private claim number four on the south, shall be called and known as the fifth ward; and all that part of said city lying between the north line of private claim number four, and the center line of private claim number thirteen, shall be called and known as the sixth ward.

Ward boundaries.

Elective officers.

SECTION 2. The first paragraph in section two, of chapter two of said act shall be so amended as to read: The elective officers of said city shall be a mayor, treasurer, assessor, and the president of the council for the city at large, one alderman and one county supervisor for each ward, one justice of the peace and one constable, for the first and second wards, one justice and one constable for the third and fourth wards, and one justice of the peace and one constable for the fifth and sixth wards; the mayor, president, aldermen, supervisors, treasurer, assessor and constable to hold their respective offices for one year, justices of the peace to hold their offices two years; no election of justices of the peace to be held in 1876.

SECTION 3. Section one of chapter seven of said act shall be amended so as to read: The common council shall elect by ballot a suitable person as street superintendent. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the usual oath of office, and enter into bonds to the city of "Fort Howard," in such sum as the common council may direct, for the faithful performance of his duties. It shall be his duty to see that all the ordinances of the city relating to the obstruction of sidewalks, streets, bridges, alleys, public grounds, reservoirs, gutters, sewers and waters of the river and sloughs in said city are duly observed and kept, and to control the persons employed therein; he shall have the general supervision over all work let by contract for the making, grading, paving, graveling, planking and repairing of streets, bridges, alleys, public grounds, reservoirs and gutters; unless the common council should direct otherwise, he shall be under the absolute control of the common council and may be removed at the pleasure of said council. He shall receive such compensation as the council may determine, and he shall have no interest directly or indirectly in any contract for streets, bridges, alleys, sidewalks, public grounds, reservoirs or gutters within the city.
