

CHAPTER 281.

[Published March 21, 1876.]

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money for the purchase of books for the state library.

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to the Appropriation, governor, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the governor, by the state librarian, for the purchase of law text books and reports for the state library.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 11, 1876.

CHAPTER 282.

[Published March 31, 1876.]

AN ACT relating to the powers of county boards of supervisor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two, of chapter one hundred Amended. and fifty-two, of the laws of this state, of 1872, is hereby amended by adding to said section two the following words: Provided, it shall be competent for said county board of supervisors, by resolution spread upon their records, to designate or adopt such roads as county roads for the purpose only of expending such money as they may annually levy, thereby assuming no responsibility to persons or property growing out of damage claimed on account of bad condition of said roads, unless said damage is caused by the neglect or carelessness of the commissioner appointed by said county board of supervisors to expend the money so levied.

Board of supervisors may adopt roads as county roads without becoming responsible for damages.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 11, 1876.
