

CHAPTER 76.

[Published March 3, 1876.]

AN ACT relating to the preservation of fish in Silver Lake and Fish Lake, and the waters connecting them, in the county of Waushara.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to draw or use any seine or net in the catching or killing of any fish in Silver Lake or Fish Lake, in the town of Marion, in the county of Waushara, Wisconsin, or in the waters connecting said lakes, or to construct or maintain any device, trap, or obstruction, in the waters connecting said lakes, for the purpose of catching or taking any fish therein, or that shall in any manner obstruct the free passage of fish from either of said lakes to the other.

Unlawful to take fish in certain ways.

SECTION 2. Any person or persons violating the provisions of section 1, of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum of not less than five, nor more than twenty dollars, with the costs of prosecution.

Penalty for violation.

SECTION 3. Justices of the peace in the county of Waushara shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all offenses arising under the provisions of this act; provided, however, that the party convicted shall have the right of appeal, as in other cases.

Jurisdiction of justices.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 29, 1876.
