

CHAPTER 99.

[Published March 10, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend chapter fifty-three (53), private and local laws of 1872, entitled, "An act to provide for county printing in the county of Waupaca," approved March 16, 1872.

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Printing to be let to lowest bidder.

SECTION 1. Section one (1) of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit: The board of supervisors of the county of Waupaca, in this state, are hereby authorized at their next annual meeting, and at each annual meeting thereafter, to let all the county printing for said county, including the delinquent tax sale, and the clerk's list of lands subject to tax deeds, to the lowest bidder; provided, however, that such board of supervisors shall not, in such letting, exceed the present legal rates of printing the same; and provided further, that before any printing shall be let, as herein provided, the person to whom said printing shall be awarded, shall execute a good and sufficient bond, in such sum as the board of supervisors may direct, with one or more sureties, that said contract for printing shall be fully and faithfully performed; provided further, that the person to whom said printing shall be awarded, shall publish or cause to be published, said delinquent tax sale list, and the clerk's list of lands, subject to tax deed, in some newspaper, printed and published in said county, for the length of time required by section one (1), chapter forty-seven (47), general laws of 1874, to be entitled to said printing; provided further, that if said county board of supervisors shall fail at any annual meeting to let said county printing, as provided for in this act, then it shall be lawful for the chairman of said board of supervisors and county clerk of said county, to let said county printing to some person who will publish or cause to be published said county printing according to the conditions heretofore provided in this act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 3, 1876.
