

is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. The salary of the clerk of the circuit and county courts, for the county of Milwaukee, is hereby fixed at the sum of six thousand dollars per annum, which shall be paid to him by the county of Milwaukee, quarterly, at the end of each three months, out of the county treasury of the county of Milwaukee. Such clerk is hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the circuit judge, to appoint one deputy clerk of said courts, in addition to the deputy clerk now provided for by law, and such additional deputy may be removed by the said clerk, and shall be invested with the same powers and duties as is provided by law in case of deputy clerks of the circuit court throughout this state; and the said salary shall be in full for all services which said clerk is required by law to perform in any action or proceeding instituted, tried or had in said circuit and county courts, and also for deputy and clerk hire: provided, that in addition to said salary, he shall also be entitled to receive the fees which are now provided by law for copies of records or papers, commissions, transcripts, and exemplifications of judgments and records, and in no case shall he or his deputies, clerk or clerks, or any or either of them, be allowed or paid any per diem fee for attendance upon either of said courts.

Provided.

Repealed.

SECTION 2. Chapter three hundred and seventy-one of the laws of 1876 entitled "An act to amend section one of chapter three hundred and eleven, of the private and local laws of 1872, entitled 'An act to fix the salary of the clerk of the circuit and county courts for the county of Milwaukee,'" is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1, 1879.

Approved March 1, 1878.
