

tion of a term, shall be for the residue of the term only.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 24, 1879.

[No. 70, S.]

[Published February 26, 1879.]

CHAPTER 66.

AN ACT to repeal chapter fifty-three, private and local laws of 1872, entitled an act to provide for county printing for the county of Waupaca, and chapter ninety-nine, laws of 1876, amendatory thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Chapter fifty-three, of private and local laws of 1872, and chapter ninety-nine, laws of 1876, amendatory thereof, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 24, 1879.

[No. 63, S.]

[Published February 26, 1879.]

CHAPTER 67.

AN ACT to provide for the election of justices of the peace in the city of Watertown.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Boundaries of districts.

SECTION 1. The city of Watertown, for the purpose of electing justices of the peace, shall be divided into three districts, as follows, to wit: 1st district, comprising the first, second and seventh wards of said city; 2d district, comprising the third and fourth wards of said city; 3d district, comprising the fifth and sixth wards of said city.

Terms of office.

SECTION 2. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, at the next election of city and ward officers, to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of April, A. D. 1879, one justice of the peace for each of the said districts: provided, the justice of the peace elected for the first district shall hold his office for one year. The justices of the second and third districts shall hold their offices for two years; thereafter, biennially, shall be elected one justice of the peace in each of the respective districts.

SECTION 3. The said justice of the peace when elected and qualified, shall be vested with the like civil and criminal jurisdiction within the limits of said city, and also within the county in which they may be respectively elected, as justices of the peace in the several towns. They shall have original jurisdiction of all complaints and actions for violations of city ordinances of said city. They shall also hold their offices in the respective districts for which they are elected. Jurisdiction of justices.

SECTION 4. All acts or parts of acts of the city charter of said city, conflicting with or contravening any part of this act, are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 24, 1879.

[No. 56, S.]

[Published February 26, 1879.]

CHAPTER 68.

AN ACT to legalize the action therein set forth of the Columbus Town Fire Insurance Company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The several elections held by the Columbus Town Fire Insurance Company since the organization of said company, and especially the annual election of said company, held on the seventh day of January, 1879, are hereby declared in all respects legal and valid; and the several boards of directors, chosen at such elections, are hereby declared the legal and qualified board of directors of said company, for the terms for which they were so chosen. Legalized.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 24, 1879.