CHAPTER 123.

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and forty-one of the laws of 1879, in relation to the distribution of the blue book.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and forty-one of the laws of 1879, entitled an act to amend section one hundred and twenty-one of chapter two of the revised statutes of 1878, in relation to the distribution of blue books, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: the secretary of state shall cause to be printed four thousand and five hundred copies of such blue book annually, to be distributed as follows: Amended. Twenty-five copies to each member of the senate and assembly, five copies each to the chief clerks and sergeants-at-arms of the two houses, one copy to each of the clerks and employes of the two houses, whose names appear in the blue book; fifty copies each to the governor, secretary of state and superintendent of public instruction; twenty-five copies each to the lieutenant governor, state treasurer and attorney general; two copies each to the rest of the state officers in the capitol, and one to each of their assistants; one copy each to the state agricultural society; the state horticultural society, the state board of charities and reform, and to the academy of arts and science; one copy to each regent of the state university and normal schools, one copy to each of the college, academy, free high school, normal school and free public libraries of the state, and to the state Distribution of penal and charitable institutions; one copy each to the county clerks and superintendents of schools of the several counties in this state, and to the clerk of the supreme court of the United States courts for Wisconsin; one copy each to the reporters in regular attendance on the legislature; one copy to each justice of the supreme court, to each judge of the United States courts sitting within this state, circuit judge and county judge, and twenty five copies to the state historical society. The remainder shall be kept by the secretary of state, who shall deliver to the superintendent of public property, at the commencement of each session of the legislature, one hundred and thirty-seven copies, to be by him distributed to the members of the legislature, and to the chief clerks and sergeants-at-arms of each house, at the opening of the session; the remainder to be kept for exchange. One copy of such blue book for each justice of the supreme court, state officer, and each member of the senate and assembly, and the chief clerks thereof, shall be bound in half morocco and be lettered with the name of the person entitled to receive it. Each county clerk receiving such blue book shall preserve and deliver the same to his successor in office, and it shall be for the use of all persons desiring to use the same in the office of said clerk. The expense for preparing and publishing such blue book, other than such as is covered by the contract with the state printer, shall be fixed by the secretary of state and paid out of the state treasury.

SECTION 2. The provisions of this act shall be construed to apply to the publication and distribution for the year of 1880.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
