

in the county jail not less than twenty days, nor more than one hundred days; and the ignorance of an uneducated practitioner of medicine shall not be pleaded in justification or extenuation of his offense.

SECTION 4. Any person knowingly laboring under small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, or other dangerous, contagious, infectious or pestilential disease, who shall willfully enter a public place or a public conveyance or shall in any way willfully subject others to danger of contracting his disease, or any person who shall knowingly and willfully take, aid in taking, or cause to be taken, a child or other irresponsible person, while laboring under any of the aforesaid diseases, into a public place or public conveyance, or shall in any way knowingly and willfully subject others to danger of contracting any of the aforesaid diseases from such child or irresponsible person, or any person who shall knowingly and willfully subject others to danger of contracting any of the aforesaid diseases from the dead body of a person deceased thereof, or any person who shall in any way knowingly and willfully expose, aid in exposing, or cause to be exposed a child or other irresponsible person, to danger of contracting any of the aforesaid diseases, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to the same penalties as are provided in section one of this act.

Making it a misdemeanor for person affected to willfully and knowingly expose others.

SECTION 5. Upon complaint made in writing, under oath, before any magistrate or justice of the peace, charging the commission of an offense against the provisions of this act in his county, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to prosecute the offender.

Duty of district attorney.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication, and all acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act, in so far as they contravene the same, are hereby repealed.

Act to take effect.

Approved March 23, 1881.

[No. 208, S.]

[Published March 25, 1881.]

CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT to repeal chapter two hundred and twenty-three of the laws of 1877, and to amend and re-enact chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1870, relating to the settlement of the railroad debt of the city of Watertown.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Said chapter two hundred and twenty-three of the laws of 1877, is hereby repealed, and said

Acts repealed and re-enacted.

section one of said chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1870, is hereby re-enacted.

Offices vacated.

SECTION 2. The offices of all the bond commissioners provided for in said chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1870, are hereby vacated, and and in their place and stead, there shall be elected at the charter election for officers of said city of Watertown on the first Tuesday of April, 1881, a new board of seven bond commissioners, one of them in and for each ward of said city, whose terms of office shall continue until the first day of November, 1884, when all exchanges of bonds under said chapter seventy-two as hereby amended, shall thereafter cease. All the powers and duties conferred in and by said chapter seventy-two on the bond commissioners therein provided for, are hereby conferred on said board of bond commissioners to be elected, subject to all the liabilities therein mentioned; and all the provisions relating to bond commissioners in said chapter seventy-two contained, shall be in force and applicable to said new board of bond commissioners above mentioned, except as herein otherwise provided for.

New board created.

Chairman of board of street commissioners to perform certain duties.

SECTION 3. All the acts and duties which said chapter seventy-two authorizes the mayor of said city to do and perform, may be done and performed by the chairman of the board of street commissioners of said city of Watertown; and all the powers and duties conferred on the common council of said city in and by said chapter seventy-two as hereby amended, are also conferred on the board of street commissioners of the said city; and all the acts and duties which said chapter seventy-two authorizes the mayor and common council of said city to do and perform, may be done and performed by said chairman and board of street commissioners.

Issuing new bonds.

SECTION 4. No new bond shall be issued under said chapter seventy-two, which shall bear date prior to the first day of April, 1881, and no such new bond shall be issued bearing date prior to the first day of April of the year in which it shall be issued, and all bonds and coupons shall cease to draw interest after becoming due unless duly presented for payment at the proper place and time, and payment thereof is refused; all laws now in force for the levy, collection and enforcing the payment of the bonds and coupons which have been issued under and pursuant to said chapter seventy-two, shall apply to and be in full force as to all bonds that shall be hereafter issued under and pursuant to the same chapter as hereby amended.

SECTION 5. Said chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1870, as hereby amended, is in full force and effect in all its provisions. ^{Amended.}

SECTION 6. All laws or parts of laws that conflict with any of the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed. ^{Repealed.}

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 24, 1881.

[No. 46, A.]

[Published March 28, 1881.]

CHAPTER 170.

AN ACT to provide a punishment for offenses against certain real estate.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If any person shall willfully sever from the soil of another, any timber or trees standing or growing thereon, and shall take and convert the same or any part thereof to his own use, shall be deemed guilty of larceny, in the same manner and of the same degree, as if the the property so taken and converted, had been severed at some previous and different time, and shall be punished in the manner provided in section four thousand four hundred and fifteen of chapter one hundred and eighty-two of the revised statutes of 1878, for larcenies of property of the same value. ^{Penalty for cutting down and taking away timber and trees belonging to another.}

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 23, 1881.

[No. 52, A.]

[Published March 28, 1881.]

CHAPTER 171.

AN ACT to authorize Archibald MacEacham to build and maintain a pier in the waters of Sturgeon Bay, Door county, Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Archibald MacEacham, his associates, heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized to build and maintain a pier in the waters of Sturgeon Bay, from fractional lot number two (2) in the northeast quarter of section number seventeen (17), in town number ^{Location of pier.}