CHAPTER 323.

AN ACT to amend section one thousand two hundred and seventy-six of chapter fifty-two of the revised statutes, entitled of highways and bridges.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Manner of appeal provided for.
Aggrieved person.

SECTION 1. Section one thousand two hundred and seventy-six of chapter fifty-two of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Any person who shall consider himself aggrieved by any order laying out, altering, widening or discontinuing any highway, or by any refusal so to do under the preceding provisions, may, within thirty days after such determination, appeal therefrom and apply to a justice of the peace of the same or an adjoining town in the county, or to the county judge, for the appointment of commissioners to review such order or determination. Such application shall be in writing, and shall briefly state the grounds upon which it is made, and whether it be made to reverse entirely such order or determination, or only a part; and in the latter case it shall state what part: provided, that in case of highways upon a line between two or more counties, such application may be made to any justice of the peace in any adjoining town in either county, or to the county judge of either county, bounded in whole or in part by such highway.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1881.

CHAPTER 324.

AN ACT relating to evidence from bank books.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Verified copies to be received as evidence.

SECTION 1. Whenever any evidence shall be required in any court of this state from the book entries of any bank or banker doing business at the time of such requirement, it shall be competent to produce verified copies of such entries, which shall be received in all legal proceedings as prima facie evidence of such book entry, or entries, and a banker or bank officer
