CHAPTER 8.

AN ACT relating to the indebtedness of municipalities and amendatory of section nine hundred and sixty c, of chapter forty-one, of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Amendment.

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred and sixty c, of chapter forty-one, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out all after the word "Wisconsin," and inserting the following: And during the period of thirty days, in which they shall be offered for sale within the county, city, village or town issuing them, as provided in this section, they shall be of denominations not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than twenty-five dollars; but after the expiration of said period of thirty days they may be of any denomination in the discretion of the constituted and statutory authorities empowered to issue them; so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 960 c. Whenever any bonds of any county, city, village or town, shall become due and payable, or in anticipation thereof, the constituted or statutory authorities having the power, by law, over the interests of the bond payers, may, in their discretion, cause to be issued, in proper form, new bonds having not more than twenty years to run. All bonds which may be issued for the purposes prescribed in sections nine hundred and sixty a, nine hundred and sixty b, and this section, shall first be offered for sale within the county, city, village or town issuing them, for a period of thirty days; notice of such sale shall be by advertisement in a newspaper printed in such county, city, village or town, if one be printed therein, and if not, then by advertisements posted in at least five public places in such county, city, village or town. The terms of sale of such bonds shall be that, to the person bidding the highest sum, not less than par, and offering to accept the lowest rate of interest for the whole or any part of said bonds, the said bonds in whole or in part shall be issued. If the bonds so offered for sale shall not have been sold, as authorized by this act, or if any portion of them shall remain unsold at the expiration of thirty days, such bonds so remaining unsold may then be disposed of by the statutory authorities in such manner as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the bond payers; but in no case shall new bonds be sold except at a rate of interest as low as that borne by the bonds for which the new bonds are to be exchanged. Such new bonds shall bear date and draw interest from the date of the payment of the bonds so retired, and shall be made payable at some stated place within the state of Wisconsin, and during the period of thirty days in which they shall be offered for sale within the county, city, village or town issuing them, as provided in this section, they shall be of denominations not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than twenty-five dollars; but after the expiration of said period of thirty days, they may be of any denomination in the discretion of the constituted and statutory authorities empowered to issue them. Where payable.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 19, 1881.
