CHAPTER 327.

AN ACT providing for the appointment of a guardian in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2614 of the revised statutes of 1878 is hereby amended by inserting in the first line of the third subdivision of said section after the word "state," where it occurs in said line, the following: "Or if being a resident of this state, he shall be temporarily absent therefrom and so remain for three months," and also by inserting after the word "residence," in the same lines, the words: "Or the place where such infant temporarily absent is living," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 2614. The guardian shall be appointed as follows:

1. When the infant is plaintiff, upon the application of the infant if he be of the age of fourteen years; or if under that age upon application of his general or testamentary guardian, if he has any, or of a relative or friend of the infant. If made by a relative or friend of the infant, notice thereof must first be given to such guardian, if he have one; if he have none then to the person with whom such infant resides.

2. When the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years and apply within twenty days after the service of the summons; if he be under the age of fourteen or neglect to so apply, then upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relation or friend of the infant, after notice of such application being first given to the general or testamentary guardian of such infant, if he have one in this state; and if he have none, then to the infant himself, if over fourteen years of age; or if under that age and within this state, to the person with whom such infant resides.

If not a resident of state.

3. If such infant is not a resident of this state or if being a resident of this state he shall be temporarily absent therefrom and so remain for three months, and his residence, or the place where such infant temporarily absent is living, be known, and that fact shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court, and it shall further appear that such infant has no general or testamentary guardian in this state, the court may grant an order that notice of an application for the appointment of a guardian for the infant be served upon such infant, if over fourteen years of age, by mailing a copy of said notice and order to such infant, directed to him at his place of residence; if under fourteen years of age, by mailing a copy of such notice and order to the person with whom such infant resides. If the residence of the infant be unknown, the court may grant an order that the service of said notice be made by publication thereof in a newspaper to be designated in such order, as most likely to give notice to such infant, and for such length of time as shall be deemed reasonable, not less than once a week for four weeks successively.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 31, 1882.
