Any technical error in such verdict may be immediately corrected, with the assent of the jury, and it shall be thereupon discharged, and its verdict filed with the magistrate. In case the jury shall fail to find a verdict, another jury shall be selected, summoned and sworn, and shall proceed in the same manner.

Appeal may be

SECTION 44. Within ten days after such verdict, any land owner whose land has been found necessary to be taken, may appeal from the award of damages to him in such verdict to the circuit court, and the city may likewise appeal from the award of damages to any owner, by filing with such magistrate or county judge, a notice of appeal, specifying whether the appeal is from the whole award to him or a part, and if a part what part thereof, and therewith an undertaking with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the magistrate or county judge, to pay all costs that may be awarded against such appellant on the appeal, and paying the magistrate for his return thereof, together with one dollar for state tax. He shall, after the time for appealing has expired, file with the city clerk, annexed together, all the original papers, including the verdict, with the copy of any docket entries made by him of the proceedings, with a certificate by him thereof, and that no appeal has been taken, except as the facts are, which he shall briefly specify, and the clerk shall file such papers and record such proceedings.

SECTION 45. Upon filing such transcript in the circuit court, the appeal shall be considered an action pending in such court, and be so entered, and be subject to a change of place of trial, and appeal to the supreme court. The appeal shall be tried by a jury, unless waived by the parties: and costs shall be awarded against the appellant, if a more favorable verdict be not obtained; otherwise against the respondent. Upon entry of judgment, the clerk of the circuit court shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the city clerk.

Appeal shall be considered an action.

If the verdict of the jury first found, find it necessary to take such land, or any part thereof, the common council may, upon return thereof to the clerk, enact an ordinance according thereto, for laying out, changing, widening or extending and opening any such street, lane, alley, public ground, square, or other public place, or constructing and opening, altering, enlarging or extending any such drains, canals or sewers, or altering, widening or straightening any such water course, but shall not enter upon any such land therefor, until the owner be paid in full the damages awarded him by such verdict or appraisal, or such damages be set apart for him in the hands of the treasurer, and an order therefor lawfully executed to him be deposited with the clerk, to permanently remain subject to his order. At any time before causing any such land to be actually taken, or put to public use, and before the rendition of a judgment in the circuit court for damages, the common council may discontinue all proceedings theretofore taken, and the city shall in such event be liable for the costs only. All the costs of every such proceeding shall be paid by the city, except when they recover costs in the circuit court.
