[No. 118, S.]   [Published March 27, 1888.]

CHAPTER 137.

AN ACT to authorize the State Historical Society of Wisconsin to sell and convey a certain tract of land.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorized to sell land.

SECTION 1. That the State Historical Society of Wisconsin be, and hereby is authorized to sell and convey that certain section or tract of land acquired by donation from the Hon. John Catlin, situated and being in the county of Coleman and state of Texas. The proceeds from such sale to go to the society's binding fund for which the land was specially donated.

SECTION 2. Whenever the executive committee of said society shall sell said lands, the deed or conveyance thereof shall be signed by the president and corresponding secretary, attested by the recording secretary, with the seal of the society affixed thereto; and shall be acknowledged before some proper officer authorized to take the acknowledgement of deeds.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 21, 1883.

[No. 392, A.]   [Published April 3, 1883.]

CHAPTER 138.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of the Congregational church and society, of Union Grove, in the town of Yorkville, Racine county, Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Legalized.

SECTION 1. All the acts, proceedings and transactions of the Congregational church and society of Union Grove in the town of Yorkville, in the county of Racine, Wisconsin, heretofore had, on and since the eighth day of September A. D. 1844, in forming and organizing said church and society, and transacting its business and changing its former name from Paris Congregational Church and society to that of Congregational Church and society of Union Grove, and acquiring lands and other property for religious purposes through the trustees acting for said church and society, at any time from its said first organization up to the