CHAPTER 273.

AN ACT to amend section 245, of the laws of 1879, entitled "An act to amend sections 490, 492, 493, 494 and 496, of the revised statutes, relating to free high schools."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Relating to free high schools.

SECTION 1. Section 5, of chapter 245, of the laws of 1879, entitled as above, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "Hereafter, when by any neglect or omission, any free high school shall fail to have apportioned to it, its share of state aid under this act, the state superintendent may, after the time hereinbefore fixed for such apportionment by him, fix an amount ten (10) per cent. less than the amount which such free high school would have been entitled to had it complied with the provisions of this act, and certify the same to the secretary of state, with the report of such district or districts annexed thereto, and the secretary shall thereupon draw his warrant for such amount or amounts in favor of such district or districts. And each successive year the superintendent shall apportion among the free high schools of the state, only the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), less such sum or sums as may have been certified by him to the secretary of state under the provisions of this act subsequent to his last regular apportionment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1883.
