JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2.

In relation to increase of pensions to one-armed and one-legged soldiers.

WHEREAS, The house of representatives at its last session, passed house bill No. 1410, increasing the pension to one-armed and one-legged soldiers to forty dollars ($40) per month; and,

WHEREAS, Said bill is now pending in the senate of the United States; therefore,

Resolved, by the assembly the senate concurring, That our senators are hereby requested to use their utmost influence in aiding the passage of said bill. Further,

Resolved, That his excellency, the governor, be and is hereby requested, to forward a copy of this resolution to each of our senators in congress.

[No. 8, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3.

WHEREAS, Contagious pleuro-pneumonia in cattle is prevalent in the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia; and,

WHEREAS, All efforts for its suppression by the states where it exists, have been unsuccessful in arresting the spread and progress of said disease, and which has become so prevalent as to threaten and endanger the entire cattle interests of the country; and,

WHEREAS, Our export trade in live cattle has been damaged to the extent of many millions annually, by the embargo laid by European governments on account of said disease.

Therefore, be it resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the question has assumed national importance, demanding the immediate attention of congress.

We would therefore respectfully call the earnest attention of our senators and representatives to the fact, and ask them to take such measures as will bring the subject up for action before the close of the present session.
