CHAPTER 177.

AN ACT to provide for the perpetuation of the records of the State Land Office.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Perpetuation of records in state and office.

SECTION 1. Whenever it shall be necessary to replace in the state land office any record, book, report, survey, map, field notes, plat or other paper, becoming defaced or illegible by use, accident, injury or age, a fair copy thereof shall be made, and the chief clerk of said land office shall, under his hand and the official seal of such office, certify to the correctness of such copy. The chief clerk shall further make as a part of his certificate thereto, the statement that such original was becoming illegible from any of the causes above given; thereupon such certified copy shall be used in the place of such defaced or illegible original; and a copy of such certified copy shall be received in all courts and places as a copy of the original.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts in anyway interfering or conflicting with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 178.

AN ACT to amend chapter 125, of the revised statutes, entitled, "Of Garnishments."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2771, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2771. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, file with the clerk of the court, an undertaking, executed by at least two sureties, resident freeholders of the state, to the effect that they will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment, with all costs that may be recovered against each defendant in the action, not exceeding a sum specified, which sum shall be not less than double the amount demanded by the complaint, or affidavit of garnishment, or in such less sum as the court, or presiding judge, shall, upon application, direct. The sureties shall justify their responsibility by affidavit annexed, stating a sum which each is worth, in property within this state, over and above all his debts and liabilities and property exempt from execution, the aggregate of which sums shall be double the amount specified in the undertaking. The defendant shall serve a copy of such undertaking, with a notice where and when the same was filed, on the plaintiff. Within three days after the receipt thereof, the plaintiff shall give notice to the defendant that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties, or he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the plaintiff excepts, the sureties shall justify in like manner as bail upon an arrest, and the provisions of sections 2704,

Relating to garnishments, statutes amended.
