CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT to amend section 1, chapter 237, laws of 1883, relating to the establishment and maintenance of public watering places.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Relating to the establishment of public watering place.

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 237, laws of 1883, is hereby amended by striking out the word "main," in the second line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "public," so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 1. Any owner or occupant of real estate bordering on a public traveled highway, who shall establish and maintain in the highway, on the real estate so owned or occupied, a convenient, suitable and sufficient supply of good drinking water, in tanks or troughs of such a height that teams attached to vehicles may drink therefrom, for the public use, shall receive from the supervisors of the town a certificate each year, setting forth the fact, which shall entitle him to a credit of five dollars for that year on his highway tax, for which he is liable by reason of his ownership or occupancy of said real estate; provided, that such watering place shall have been maintained for one year next preceding the time that such highway tax becomes due; and provided further, that such watering places shall not be established within two miles by the line of the highway of another so certified.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved February 26, 1885.
