hook and line, in the usual manner of fishing. The use of grapple hook or hooks, or other device for hooking up fish, is prohibited, and the waters of Dell Creek, as named in this act, shall include all of the water in the ponds thereon, including all bays, sloughs and all tributary streams, and all of the pond now called "Mirror Lake."

Penalty for violating the law.

SECTION 2. Any person violating the provisions of section 1, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and upon failure to pay such fine and costs, shall be committed to the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, unless said fine and costs are sooner paid.

Penalty for being caught with boat, spear, etc.

SECTION 3. Any person or persons being found on the water herein mentioned, with boat, and spear and torch light in the night, or with boat and spear in the day-time, or along the banks thereof with a spear in day-time, it shall be deemed prima facie evidence of an intent to violate the provisions of section 1, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, and upon failure to pay such fine and costs, shall be committed to the county jail, not less than twenty days, nor more than four months.

Half the penalty goes to informer.

SECTION 4. Any person giving information which shall cause the conviction of any one violating the provisions of section 1 and 3, shall be entitled to receive one half of any fine collected in such case, and it shall be the duty of any public officer in the towns of Delton, Dellona and Excelsior, in the county of Sauk, who may know or have information of the violation of the provisions of sections 1 and 3, to prosecute, and any such officer who shall refuse or neglect to so prosecute, shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and costs, to be sued for in the name of the state of Wisconsin, by the town treasurer of the town in which said officer holds office, or any other person may sue. All officers of a town, elected or appointed, shall be deemed public officers under the provisions of this act. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person from prosecuting violators of the provisions of sections 1, 3 and 4.

SECTION 5. No black bass shall be taken or killed in any manner in the waters herein described, between the first day of November and the succeeding first day of May in each year, under the same penalty as prescribed in this act for the violation of section 1.

No black bass fishing allowed except at certain seasons.

SECTION 6. Fish may be taken at any time and in any manner, in the waters of Dell Creek, below the lower dam.

Fish below the lower dam may be taken.

SECTION 7. The general laws of this state for the preservation of fish shall not apply to the waters herein described. All previous laws for the protection of fish in Dell Creek are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication. Approved April 1, 1885.
