

[No. 19, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10.

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the State Historical Society may add to its next authorized volume of collections, one hundred and fifty pages, if so much should be needed, in order to give a full general index to the first series of the society's publications.

[No. 26, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11.

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the secretary of state is hereby authorized to have printed in connection with the testimony taken at the coroner's inquest upon the bodies of the men killed by the falling of the capitol, the report of the commission appointed by the governor to investigate the causes of said capitol disaster, together with the letters and reports of W. W. Boyington, architect, called to reconstruct the building.

[No. 21, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION, NO. 12.

Instructing the joint committee on claims to report a bill.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the joint committee on claims be, and they are hereby required to prepare and introduce a bill providing for the payment of Adolph Glenz, a messenger in the senate and James Straslipka, a messenger in the assembly, who have been employed ever since the opening of the session and who cannot be paid for such time as they served prior to the adoption of the resolution authorizing their appointment.