

of the United States and of the courts of last resort in the several states, published weekly, for any county in his circuit. Whenever such subscription shall be made by such judge, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court for such county to cause the numbers of such reports to be bound in substantial leather bindings, and to have the same stamped or branded with the name of the county for which the subscription shall be so made, and keep the same in his office for the use of the courts of such county, and the judges thereof, and the district attorney and other officers of such county. The clerk of the circuit court of such county shall be responsible for the safe keeping of the volumes of such reports, and shall, at the expiration of his term of office, deliver such volumes of reports to his successor in office, and take a receipt therefor, and file the same in the office of the clerk of such county.

Cost of subscription and binding to be paid by county.

SECTION 2. Whenever any such subscription for reports shall have been made by such circuit judge, the amount of such subscription and of the cost of binding such volume of reports, shall be paid by the county treasurer of such county upon the presentation to him of the order of the clerk of the circuit court for such county, certified by the judge of said court.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 368.

AN ACT to amend section 1070, of chapter 48, of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to apportionment of state tax, etc.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1070, of chapter 48, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by striking out the word, "second," where the same occurs in the eighth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word, "fourth," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 1070. The secretary of state shall annually apportion the state tax levied for the year, and all other taxes which he is directed by law to levy as or in the manner of a state tax among the several counties according and in proportion to the relative valuation of each county to the aggregate valuation of the whole state; and shall carry out opposite the name of each county on the list aforesaid, the amount of such taxes, apportioned thereto and thereupon; and on or before the fourth Monday of October, in each year, he shall certify to the county clerk of each county the amount of such taxes, apportioned to and levied upon his county, and all other special charges which he is required by any law to make in any year to any such county to be collected with the state tax. He shall then charge to each county the whole amount of such taxes and charges so assessed; and the same shall be paid into the state treasury as provided by law.

Amending section 1070, R. S., apportionment of state tax.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 8, 1887.
