CHAPTER 387.

AN ACT to amend chapter 331, of the laws of 1887, entitled, "an act to incorporate the city of Altoona."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When first election shall be held.

SECTION 1. Section 16, of chapter 12, of chapter 331, of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended by striking out the word, "second," where it occurs in said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word, "third," so that said section, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 16. The first city election of the city of Altoona, for the election of city and ward officers shall be held in the respective wards of said city on the third Tuesday of April, 1887. Five days' notice of the time and place of holding such elections shall be given by posting notices in writing in three public places in said city, signed by A. L. Anderson, G. L. Colburn, and J. K. Brasill, who are hereby appointed a board of canvassers to canvass the returns of the several wards in said city, and are authorized to select a place in each ward for holding such election. At the time of opening the polls in each ward the electors present shall choose viva voce from the qualified electors present, three inspectors of election and two or more clerks of election, who, before entering upon their duties, shall take the oath required of inspectors and clerks of election. Such elections shall be conducted as herein provided for city elections. After the polls of such election are
