[Published March 11, 1887.]

CHAPTER 39.

AN ACT to authorize boards of registry to hold meetings and make registry lists in new wards and precincts of certain cities, for the election in April, 1887.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In case of the formation of new wards or new election precincts in any city in this state, which by the census of 1880, contained a population in excess of fifty thousand, after the appointment by the mayor, and the approval by the board of aldermen, of the inspectors and clerks of election for the year, as provided in chapter 389, of the laws of 1885, the inspectors and clerks appointed or who may be appointed for such new wards or election precincts by the mayor of such city, whether such appointments have been approved by the board of aldermen or not, shall act as such inspectors and clerks of election in their respective election precincts or districts, at the judicial election and the annual municipal election to be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1887, and they shall be authorized to hold meetings for the purpose of making a registry list of the qualified voters in their respective precincts according to law, at the time prescribed by law at such place in each such precinct as shall be fixed

Authorizing boards of registry to hold meetings and make registry lists in new wards, and to act as clerks and inspectors by the mayor or by the common council for holding the election aforesaid, with the same authority and powers in all respects as if regularly appointed according to the provisions of said chapter 389, and a failure to give the notice of the time and place of holding such meetings or either of them as required by section 17, of said chapter 389, shall in no way affect or invalidate any acts of such inspectors and clerks acting as a board of registry in any such new election precinct or in making any registry list of voters qualified to vote in any precinct at the coming judicial and annual municipal election to be held on the first Tuesday in April, 1887.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1887.

CHAPTER 40.

AN ACT in relation to the instruction of deaf mutes, and amendatory of section 4, of chapter 315, of the laws of 1885.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending
chapter 315,
laws 1885.

SECTION 1. Section 4, of chapter 315, of the laws of 1885, is hereby amended, by striking from said section, the following words at the end thereof, to-wit: "provided that no more than two-fifths of the amount appropriated by this act shall be expended in any one county," so that said section, when so amended, will read as follows: Section 4. The sums to be paid as provided in next preceding section, shall be audited by the secretary of state, upon the certificate of the president and secretary of the school board, and the superintendent of schools of such city maintaining such school, setting forth the number of pupils instructed in such school or schools, and the period of time each such pupil shall have been so in-
