CHAPTER 548.

AN ACT relating to voluntary assignments and amendatory of section 1702, chapter 80, revised statutes, and creating section 1702c.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending section 1702, R. S.—voluntary assignments.

SECTION 1. Section 1702, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended so that said section shall read and be as follows: Section 1702. The circuit judge may, upon notice and after a hearing, remove any assignee who is shown to be incompetent, or to have become disqualified, or to have wasted or misapplied any of the trust estate, and shall also remove any such assignee upon the application of a majority of the creditors of such assignor, who shall also represent a majority in value of the debts allowed against said estate, and compel by order a settlement of his account and surrender of the estate to his successor, and shall appoint the person named in such petition, or some suitable person as his successor, who shall qualify in the same manner provided by law for the assignee appointed by the instrument of assignment; and in place of any assignee who shall die or be removed, may appoint another, who shall give like bond, and be subject to like duties and responsibilities as to the estate remaining undisposed of, and proceedings remaining to be taken, as if appointed by the instrument of assignment.

SECTION 2. There is hereby created a new section to be known as section 1702c, of the revised statutes of 1878, which shall read and be as follows: Section 1702c. The assignee of every voluntary assignment shall make and file with the clerk of the circuit court of the county where such assignment is made at least once in every year during the continuance of his trust, a full and itemized statement, verified by his oath of the condition of all the property and funds held by him as such assignee, and of all receipts, expenses and disbursements in any way connected with said trust, including his own charges as such assignee.

Creating section 1702c— Assignee to file statement of condition of trust with clerk of circuit court.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
