

[No. 573, A ]

[Published March 21, 1889.]

CHAPTER 110.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the town of Mayville, in the county of Clark, and to create the town of Hoard.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. All that certain territory in the county of Clark and state of Wisconsin described as follows, to wit: Township number twenty-nine (29) north, of range one (1) west, of the fourth (4) principal meridian, is hereby set off and detached from the town of Mayville, and is hereby created and constituted a separate town, to be known and designated as the town of Hoard.

Detaching territory from town of Mayville and creating town of Hoard.

SECTION 2. The part of the indebtedness of the said town of Mayville to be apportioned to the said town of Hoard shall bear the same ratio to the whole of said indebtedness that the last assessed valuation of the taxable property of the above described detached territory bears to that of the last assessed valuation of the whole of the taxable property of said town of Mayville as shown by its last assessment roll.

Indebtedness, how apportioned.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of the town of Hoard shall meet at the hall of Andrew Olson, in the village of Curtiss, in said town of Hoard, on the day appointed by law for the holding of annual town meetings, and the election of town officers in this state, and shall, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for said town, and for the purposes of such election the qualified voters of said town of Hoard, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their duties, take and subscribe the usual oath of office, and file the same with their return, and such inspectors shall canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings, and the qualified electors so assembled at the place aforesaid may vote for judicial officers to be chosen on said day, and the votes cast for such judicial officers, whether for justices of the supreme court, judge of the circuit court, or county judge, or all of them, shall be counted, canvassed and returned in the same manner and shall have the same effect as if the said town of Hoard were fully organized.

First town meeting, when held, etc.

When town to be deemed organized.

SECTION 4. When such election shall have been held as herein provided and the town officers required by law duly elected, and such officers have duly qualified as required by law, the said town of Hoard shall be deemed to be duly organized and shall possess all the rights, powers and liabilities of other towns in this state.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1889.

[No. 141, S.]

[Published March 21, 1889.]

CHAPTER 111.

AN ACT to establish the terms of court of the fifteenth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Establishing
terms of court
of 15th judicial circuit.

SECTION 1. That the several terms of said court in said circuit be held as follows: In the county of Ashland on the second Monday of June and on the second Monday of December, and on the third Monday of September; in the county of Bayfield on the first Wednesday of April and the first Monday of October; in the county of Oneida on the third Monday of April and the third Monday of October; in the county of Price on the first Monday of May and the first Wednesday in November; in the county of Taylor on the third Monday of May and the third Monday of November; and in the county of Sawyer, on the first Monday of June and the first Monday of December.

SECTION 2. No jury shall be empanelled at the