CHAPTER 355.

AN ACT to amend chapter 74, of the laws of 1887, entitled, "an act to incorporate the city of Richland Center."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amendment to chapter 74, laws of 1887.

Relating to the question of granting license in Richland Center.

SECTION 1. There is hereby enacted a new section to be known as section 5a, of chapter 74, of the laws of 1887, which shall read as follows: The common council of the city of Richland Center shall annually, at the spring election therein, submit to the voters of said city, the question of granting license for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or refusing to grant license for the sale of intoxicating liquor therein for the then ensuing year. The question, when submitted to the votes, shall be upon a separate ballot, and the ballots on the license question shall be in the following form: Those in favor, "For license;" those against, "No license;" and shall be deposited in a separate ballot box provided for that purpose, and whenever a majority of the voters voting thereon shall declare by their votes as aforesaid in favor of license, then the common council shall grant license according to the provisions of the laws of the state of Wisconsin on that subject; and in case the majority of the voters voting thereon should declare for no license as aforesaid, then, and in every such case, the common council shall have no power or authority to grant license or druggists' permits for the sale of intoxicating liquors and drinks in said city.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 10, 1889.
