

Marks recorded in certain, to be re-recorded.

SECTION 6. All log marks recorded in the offices of the lumber inspectors of the first, tenth and fourteenth districts, or in either of them prior to January 1, 1880, shall be re-recorded, by the parties claiming the same within six months after the passage of this act. All such marks not so re-recorded shall be deemed to have been abandoned by the owners and any other person thereupon, may record and use any of such marks the same as if said marks had not been previously recorded and the lumber inspectors of each of said districts shall be entitled to receive for the re-cording of each such mark the sum of twenty-five cents.

Sec. 1738, R. S., repealed.

SECTION 7. Section 1738, of the revised statutes, and all other acts and parts of acts, so far only as the same conflict or are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication. Approved April 16, 1889.

[No. 513, A.]

[Published April 23, 1889.]

CHAPTER 442.

AN ACT to provide for appointment of inspectors and clerks of election in cities of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Appointment of inspectors and clerks of election in cities of 50,000 or more.

SECTION 1. In every city in the state of Wisconsin, having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or more, according to the last general United States census, the mayor shall on or before the first Monday in August of each year request the ward committee, if there be one, if not, the city or county committee of each political party that cast an aggregate of five thousand votes in such city at the last preceding general election, to nominate one or more suitable persons for inspectors and clerks of each election precinct of said ward. From the names so furnished him, the mayor shall appoint and notify the common council of such city at its first regular meeting in September, of such appointments, three inspectors of election and two clerks of election for each election district in said city. In case there were more than two political parties organized and voting at the last preceding election the mayor shall appoint not more than one inspector and one clerk from the same political party. Persons so appointed by the mayor to act as inspectors and clerks shall hold their office for the term of one year. In case of a vacancy arising at any time in the office of inspector, or clerk, it shall be the duty of the mayor to fill such vacancy using the names as hereinabove provided, so far as practicable for that purpose. In case of a vacancy occurring on the days of registration, or on election day, it shall be the duty of the remaining inspectors to fill such vacancy. Such inspectors and clerks shall be electors in the precinct for which they shall be appointed inspectors or clerks; shall be able to read and write the English language understandingly; shall not be candidates to be voted for at any election for which they may be appointed inspectors or clerks. A vacancy occurring in the office of inspector or clerk shall be filled as hereinbefore provided, by persons of the same political party as the persons they succeed. Persons appointed to fill vacancies shall hold their office for the unexpired term, of any persons in whose stead they may be appointed, they shall act as inspectors and clerks at every general election, election of judicial officers, city elections and all special elections held within their precinct during such time; they shall receive such compensation for their services and be liable to such penalties for any violation of their duties as is provided by law for inspectors and clerks of election in other cases.

Mayor to appoint.

Vacancies may be filled.

Qualifications required.

Compensation.

SECTION 2. All persons, who possess the qualifications hereinbefore provided, shall be liable to be appointed such inspectors or clerks of election. None shall be exempt from such service, except such persons as are now exempt by law from jury service.

None exempt from service.

SECTION 3. The city clerk shall without necessary delay cause to be served upon each person

Notice of appointment to be served.

appointed as inspector or clerk, a notice in writing signed by him as such city clerk with the corporate seal of the city duly affixed thereto, setting forth the fact of the appointment of said person as inspector or clerk, and shall require such person within ten days from the date of the service of such notice upon him to take and subscribe and file with the city clerk the oath of office as provided by law. Such notice may be served by any police officer of any such city. No person who has been appointed, as inspector or clerk, as hereinbefore provided, shall be excused from duty as such inspector or clerk except by the mayor of such city and then only upon good cause being shown to the satisfaction of the mayor.

Mayor may excuse party from acting.

Penalty for neglect to act.

SECTION 4. If any person lawfully notified as herein provided, to qualify and act as inspector or clerk of election, shall neglect to qualify within the time specified, or to act as inspector or clerk of election on any day of registration or election, without being excused as hereinbefore provided, he shall pay a fine not exceeding forty dollars, which shall be imposed by the municipal court of any such city. It shall be the duty of the city attorney of any such city, to prosecute every such person in such court in the name of such city.

City attorney to prosecute.

Repeal.

SECTION 5. All acts and parts of acts, contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 18, 1889.

[No. 305, A.]

[Published April 23, 1889.]

CHAPTER 443.

AN ACT to amend chapter 374, of the laws of 1887, entitled, an act to secure the better preservation of game.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending ch. 374, laws 1887.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 374, of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended by striking out