CHAPTER 383.

AN ACT to amend chapter 468 of the laws of 1889, entitled, "An act to amend chapter 441 of the laws of 1887, entitled 'An act to extend the lien law of the state.'"

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends chapter 468, laws of 1889.

Lien for service of stallions, etc.; notice of, to be filed.

SECTION 1. Chapter 468 of the laws of 1889 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. Every owner of a stallion or jackass kept and used for breeding purposes, shall have a lien upon any colt gotten by such stallion or jackass, for the sum stipulated to be paid for the service of such stallion or jackass, and may seize and take possession of said colt without process, at any time before it is one year old, in case the price agreed upon for such services remains unpaid, and sell the same at public auction upon ten days' notice, to be posted in at least three-public places in the town where the owner of such colt resides, and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the amount due for such services and the expenses of such seizure and sale, returning the residue, if any, to the party entitled thereto; provided, no such lien shall be effectual for any purpose as against an innocent purchaser for value, unless such owner having a claim for the service of such stallion or jackass shall file with the clerk of the city, village or town where the owner of the mare resides, a statement showing that such service has been rendered and the amount due therefor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 22, 1891.
