CHAPTER 68.

AN ACT granting to the United States the jurisdiction over certain lands in Sheboygan county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The consent of the state of Wisconsin is hereby given to the purchase by the United States, of any tract or tracts of land in the city of Sheboygan, for the erection thereon of a building under the provisions of an act of congress, approved December 24th, 1890, entitled, "An act for a public building at Sheboygan, Wisconsin," and the state of Wisconsin hereby cedes to the United States, exclusive jurisdiction over such tract or tracts of land as shall be purchased for the purposes aforesaid, so long as they shall be or remain the owner thereof, for all purposes except the administration of the criminal laws of said state and the service of civil process therein.

United States may purchase land in city of Sheboygan.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

NOTE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE.—The foregoing act having been presented to the governor for his approval, and such approval having been withheld, said act was returned by him to the house of the legislature in which it originated; it was then passed over his veto by a vote of 88 ayes and 0 noes in the assembly, and 28 ayes and 0 noes in the senate. Said act therefore becomes a law without the governor's approval, as prescribed in the constitution.

CHAPTER 69.

AN ACT to create a municipal court for the county of Polk.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Municipal court of Polk county

SECTION 1. There is hereby created and established in and for the county of Polk, a municipal court, to be known and designated as the Municipal court of Polk County, with the powers and jurisdiction hereinafter specified and provided.

Election of judges, when,
and term of office.

SECTION 2. On the first Tuesday of April, A. D., 1891, there shall be elected in the county of Polk, a municipal judge, who shall hold his office for the term of two years from the first Monday in May following his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified; for the purposes of such election, the county clerk of said county shall make out a notice in writing, stating that on said first Tuesday in April a municipal judge for said county is to be elected, and shall cause the same to be delivered to each town and village clerk in said county at least four days before said election (the mailing of said notice to each of said town and village clerks, or to any or either of them eight days before said election shall be a sufficient delivery thereof to such clerks); immediately upon receipt of said notice, the said town and village clerks shall give notice to the town and village electors respec-
