AN ACT to amend section 752b. of Sanborn and Berryman's Annotated Statutes of Wisconsin, relating to county officers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends sec. 752, S. and B's Anno. State.

District attorney may appoint assistant when county has over one hundred thousand inhabitants.

SECTION 1. Section 752b. of Sanborn and Berryman's Annotated Statutes of Wisconsin, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 752b. The district attorney of every county in this state, having a population, as shown from the last census, of one hundred thousand inhabitants, or more, is hereby authorized and empowered to nominate and appoint an assistant district attorney, who shall be an attorney at law, admitted to practice within this state, and who shall have actually practiced in the county wherein he is so appointed for a term of not less than two years, to assist him in the performance of the duties of his office, at a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum; and he is hereby further authorized and empowered to nominate and appoint a deputy district attorney, who shall be an attorney at law, admitted to practice within this state, to assist him in the performance of the duties of his office, at a salary of one thousand dollars per annum. And it is hereby made the duty of the proper county officers to pay to said assistant and deputy district attorneys the compensation so fixed, in the manner provided by law for the compensation of all county officers receiving annual salaries. Said district attorney shall notify the county board of supervisors of the counties wherein such appointments shall be made, of the appointments of his assistant and deputy, who shall be approved by a majority of the county board, and thereafter such assistant and deputy shall enter upon the duties of said office. The assistant and deputy district attorneys, so appointed, shall have the powers and perform the duties of the district attorney, except the signing of bills of indictment and informations. Said assistant and deputy district attorneys shall be required to give no bonds and the district attorney shall be responsible for their official acts.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 31, 1893.
