CHAPTER 165.

AN ACT to amend section 3788, of the revised statutes, relating to probate of wills.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3788, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3788. If no person appear to contest the probate of a will at the time fixed for that purpose, the court may, in its discretion, grant probate thereof on the testimony of one of the subscribing witnesses only, if such witness shall testify that such will was executed in all particulars as required by the statutes of this state and that the testator was of a sound mind at the time of the execution thereof. If none of the subscribing witnesses shall reside in this state at the time fixed for proving the will, or if any one or more of the subscribing witnesses shall have gone to parts unknown and the court shall be satisfied that such witness, after due diligence used, cannot be found, the court may, in its discretion, admit the testimony of other witnesses to prove the sanity of the testator, and the execution of the
