CHAPTER 212.

AN ACT to amend section 3069, revised statutes, relating to appealable orders.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

What orders may be appealed to the supreme court.

SECTION 1. Section 3069, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so that it shall read as follows, to-wit: Section 3069. The following orders, when made by the court, may be carried by appeal to the supreme court.

Affecting a substantial right.

1. An order affecting a substantial right, made in any action, when such order, in effect, determines the action and prevents a judgment, from which an appeal might be taken.

2. A final order affecting a substantial right, made in special proceedings or upon a summary application in an action after judgment.

A final order affecting a substantial right.

3. When an order grants, refuses, continues or modifies a provisional remedy; or grants, refuses, modifies or dissolves an injunction; or when it sets aside or dismisses a writ of attachment for irregularity; or when it sustains or overrules a demurrer.

When it grants, refuses or modifies a provisional remedy, etc.

4. Orders made by the circuit court, vacating or refusing to set aside orders made at chambers, where by the provisions of this chapter an appeal might have been taken in case the order so made at chambers had been granted or denied by the circuit court in the first instance. For the purpose of an appeal from an order, either party may require the order to be entered by the clerk of record, and it shall be entered accordingly.

Vacating or refusing to set aside orders made at chambers.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
