CHAPTER 274.

AN ACT to amend chapter 94, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1893, relating to county officers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Assistant district attorneys
may be appointed. Their salaries. Powers and duties

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 94, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1893, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. The district attorney of every county in this state, having a population, as shown from the last census, of one hundred thousand inhabitants, or more, is hereby authorized and empowered to nominate and appoint three assistant district attorneys, who shall be attorneys at law, admitted to practice within this state, and who shall have actually practiced in this state for a term of not less than two years to assist him in the performance of the duties of his office, and who shall be known as first assistant district attorney, second assistant district attorney and third assistant district attorney, and whose salaries shall be as follows: First assistant district attorney, two thousand two hundred dollars per annum; second assistant district attorney, two thousand dollars per annum; third assistant district attorney, fifteen hundred dollars per annum; and stenographer at six hundred dollars per annum. And it is hereby made the duty of the proper county officers to pay said assistant district attorneys and stenographer the compensation so fixed, in the manner provided by law for the compensation of all county officers receiving annual salaries. The district attorney making said appointments shall notify the county board of supervisors of the counties wherein such appointments shall be made, and thereafter such assistants shall enter upon the duties of said office. The said assistants so appointed shall have the powers and perform the duties of the district attorney excepting the signing of bills of indictments and informations. Said assistants shall be required to give no bonds, and the district attorney making such appointments shall be responsible for their official acts.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1895.
