CHAPTER 146.

AN ACT to provide for the filling of vacancies in city offices in cities of the first class.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cities of the first class, where no provision of law is now made for filling vacancies which may occur in any city office, it is hereby made the duty of the city clerk, within forty-eight hours after he shall have learned or been notified of any vacancy of such office, to forthwith certify the same, under his hand and official seal, to the mayor of said city, and it shall thereupon be made the duty of such mayor, within thirty days after he shall have received said notice, to appoint some suitable person to fill the office, so made vacant and to notify the common council of said appointment, which said appointment shall be for the unexpired term, and shall be subject to the confirmation of such common council or the same shall not be operative; provided, however, that in case of vacancy in the office of mayor, the same shall be filled by election by the common council of such city for the unexpired term. A majority vote of all the members elect shall be necessary to make a valid election.

Vacancies in office to be certified to the mayor by the city clerk.

SECTION 2. Such officers so appointed or elected shall take the oath of office within the time and in the manner prescribed by law and shall, after the confirmation by the common council, or in the case of the mayor, after the election by said common council, having otherwise qualified, be thereupon entitled to enter upon the duties of their respective offices and receive the emoluments thereof.

New appointees to be entitled to enter upon the duties of their offices.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 31, 1897.
