CHAPTER 192.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled, "An act to incorporate the Wisconsin Female College," approved January 29, 1855, as amended by private and local laws of 1861, chapter 31, and by private and local laws of 1868, chapter 452, and by laws of 1889, chapter 6, and by laws of 1893, chapter 294.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Whereas, Downer college exists under special charter from the state of Wisconsin and is a corporation for the education of young women; and

Whereas, Milwaukee-Downer college, a corporation, has been organized in the city of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, under chapter 86, of the revised statutes, without capital stock, for the purpose of educating young women and maintaining a school, seminary and college therefor, and is intended to effectuate the purposes for which Downer college was organized and has been heretofore maintained.

SECTION 1. Said Downer college and its trustees are hereby authorized to convey, transfer and deliver over to the said Milwaukee-Downer college, all the property, real and personal, and property rights including herein endowments and endowment funds, and equitable as well as legal rights and estates belonging to the said Downer college, upon being authorized thereto by the vote of a majority of the shares of stock of said Downer college, outstanding and held, either by the parties to whom such shares were issued or their personal representatives, or by the trustees of said Downer college, such vote to be had at a meeting of the stockholders of said Downer college, which shall have been called in the manner provided by the by-laws of said college for the election of trustees.

SECTION 2. Upon being so authorized by such vote of the said stockholders, the trustees of the said Downer college may, through the president and secretary of said college, execute and deliver the proper writings and conveyances necessary to effectuate such transfer, and each of the said instruments of transfer and each of said conveyances shall contain a clause to the effect that the property and property rights thereby transferred or conveyed, or such property as the same may be converted into and reconverted into, from time to time by the said transferee, shall be perpetually devoted exclusively to the education of young women.

What conveyances shall contain to effectuate the transfer.

SECTION 3. This act shall not, and shall not be taken to destroy or impair any right existing or which may exist in favor of any stockholder of such corporation, who may not consent to the said transfer; nor to confer upon or recognize in any such stockholder any right not existing before the passage of this act; provided, that all rights which may be claimed to arise out of said transfer shall be asserted by suit or action within one year after the passage and publication of this act.

Does not impair the rights of any non-consenting stockholder.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 9, 1897.
