CHAPTER 46.

AN ACT to amend section 2989, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin, relating to levy on corporate stock.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Levy on corporate stock of banks—how accomplished.

SECTION 1. Section 2989, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2989. Any share or interest of a stockholder in any bank doing business in this state, whether organized under the laws of the United States or this state, or other stock corporation which shall have been organized under the laws of this state, may be levied upon by leaving a copy of the execution with the clerk, treasurer or cashier of the bank or corporation, if there be any such officer; otherwise with any officer or person who has at the time the custody of the books and papers of such bank or corporation. The officer having such execution may demand of any such officer or person a certificate of the number of shares or the amount of the interest held by the judgment debtor in such bank or other corporation, and such officer or person shall give such certificates, and if he shall unreasonably refuse so to do, or shall wilfully give a false certificate, he shall be liable for double the amount of all damages occasioned by such refusal or false certificate, to be recovered in an action by the judgment creditor, unless the judgment be satisfied by the original debtor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 13, 1897.
