CHAPTER 151.

AN ACT relating to sales of oleomargarine, and amendatory of section 4607c of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Filled cheese; oleomargarine; penalties. SECTION 1. Section 4607c of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting after the word "sell," in the tenth line of said section, the words, "or solicit or accept orders for," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 4607c. Any person who shall by himself, his agent or servant manufacture, buy, sell, offer, ship, consign, expose or have in possession for sale, any cheese manufactured from or by the use of skim milk to which there has been added any fat which is foreign to such milk, or who shall by himself, his agent or servant manufacture, buy, sell, offer, ship, consign, expose or have in possession for sale, within this state, any skimmed-milk cheese or cheese manufactured from milk from which any of the fat originally contained therein has been removed, except such last mentioned cheese is ten inches in diameter and nine inches in height, or who shall, by himself, his agent or servant, render or manufacture, sell or solicit or accept orders for, ship, consign, offer or expose for sale or have in possession, with intent to sell, any article, product or compound made wholly or partly out of any fat, oil or oleaginous substance or compound thereof, not produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, and without the admixture or addition of any fat foreign to said milk or cream, which shall be in imitation of yellow butter produced from such milk or cream with or without coloring matter, shall for the first offense be punished by fine of not more than five hundred dollars, nor less than fifty dollars, and for each subsequent offense, by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed sixty days nor less than ten days, or by fine of not more than five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine in a separate and distinct form and in such manner as will advise the consumer of its real character, and free from coloration or ingredient that causes it to look like butter.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 152.

AN ACT to amend sections 3075 and 3088 of the statutes of 1898, relating to ejectments.

Occupant to be made defendant. SECTION 1. Amend section 3075 of the statutes of Wisconsin by adding to the end of said section the following: "or against the person in whom any title appears of record in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county in which said premises are located, at the commencement of the action;" so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 3075. If the premises for which the action is brought are actually occupied by any person, such actual occupant shall be made defendant in complaint; if they are not so occupied, the action must be brought against some person exercising acts of ownership on the premises claimed, or claiming title thereto or some interest therein, at the commencement of the action, or against the person in whom the title appears of record in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county in which said premises are located, at the commencement of the action.

Judgment to be conclusive. SECTION 2. Section 3088 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding to said section the following: "and every purchaser whose conveyance is not recorded or filed, shall be deemed to have acquired his title after the filing of such notice, and shall be bound by the proceedings in the action to the same extent and in the same manner as if he were a party thereto;" so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3088.
