CHAPTER 24.

AN ACT to make the requirements for administrators' bonds uniform with the requirements for executors' bonds, and amending section 3809 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Bond to have one or more sureties; separate bonds. SECTION 1. Section 3809 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by omitting the word "such" where it occurs in the third line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words "one or more" and also by inserting the words "one or more" between the words "with" and "sureties" where they occur in the eighth line of said section; so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 3809. Every administrator before he enters upon the execution of his trust and before letters of administration shall be granted to him, shall give a bond to the judge of the county court, with one or more sureties, as the court shall approve, with substantially the same conditions as are required of executors by section 3794, with such variations only as may be necessary to make it applicable to the case of an administrator. When two or more persons shall be appointed administrators of any estate, the county court may take a separate bond from each with one or more sureties or a joint bond from all, with sureties.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 25.*

AN ACT to amend section 2464, of Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to county courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

What county judges may hold special terms; where held. SECTION 1. Amend section 2464, Wisconsin statutes of 1898 by inserting before "Columbia," in the second line, the word "Grant," also by inserting in line six of said section, after the word "counties," the words, "in the county of Grant, at the city of Platteville," so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 2464. The county judges of the counties of Grant, Columbia, Waukesha, Pepin, Dodge and Green Lake may keep their offices and hold special terms of the county court at any time between the times of holding the regular terms and transact any business which might be done at, or which may be continued from, any regular term to such special term at the following places in their respective counties: In the county of Grant at the city of Platteville; in the county of Columbia at the city of Columbus; in the county of Waukesha, at the city of Oconomowoc; in the county of Pepin, at the village of Pepin; in the county of Dodge, at Beaver Dam and Mayville; in the county of Green Lake, at Princeton and Berlin. All orders, judgments and business which shall be made or done at such special terms and places, or as shall have been heretofore so made or done, are declared valid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 1, 1901.
