CHAPTER 304.

AN ACT to amend section 422 of the statutes of 1898, defining joint school districts and relating to the dissolving and alteration of the boundaries thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Joint districts, what are; boundaries how changed; duty of boards. SECTION 1. Section 422 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read, when amended, as follows: Section 422. Whenever any school district in this state shall be comprised partly of the territory of any city or an incorporated village and partly of the territory of an adjoining town or towns, it shall be and for all intents and purposes shall be considered as a joint school district which may be dissolved or the boundaries of which may be changed only by the joint action of the city or common council of the city or the trustees of the village as the case may be and the board or boards of supervisors of the town or towns in which any part or parts of said joint school district may be situated and only in the same manner in which any other joint district may be altered or dissolved, but no new joint district embracing a part of any city shall be hereafter formed.

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 2. Any and all laws, statutes or acts conflicting in any manner with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 6, 1901.
