CHAPTER 455.

AN ACT to authorize Charles R. Smith, Henry S. Smith, L. J. Noble and their associates and assigns to build and maintain dams across the Flambeau river, in the county of Chippewa, in the state of Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Location of dam. SECTION 1. Charles R. Smith, Henry S. Smith, and L. J. Noble, their heirs and assigns, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain a dam across the Flambeau river in Chippewa county, Wisconsin, on the north half of section 30, township 35 north, of range 5 west; and also another dam across said Flambeau river on fractional lot 7 and fractional lot 1, section 2 township 34 north, of range 6 west; such dams to be constructed and maintained for milling, manufacturing and hydraulic purposes; also to erect and maintain on and in said river on said lands, mills, machinery, booms and piers and all other structures, appendages and improvements necessary and proper to enable it to use the water of said river for said purposes; also to deposit and hold logs and timber in the ponds created by said dams, to be manufactured at such mills.

Log slides. SECTION 2. The dams and all of said structures and improvement shall be so constructed as not to retard the driving of logs and timber down said river and over and through said dams, and a passageway for such logs and timber shall be kept open free of charge whenever there shall be any logs or timber to pass down said river.

Fishways. SECTION 3. Such dams shall also contain good and sufficient fishways, permitting the easy and free passage of fish up and down said stream.

Power to acquire flowage rights. SECTION 4. Said Charles R. Smith, Henry S. Smith, L. J. Noble their heirs and assigns, for the purpose of acquiring any flowage rights which they or either of them may deem necessary in carrying out the provisions of this act, may exercise all powers granted to corporations by sections 1777 to 1777d inclusive, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin, which are not inconsistent with the provisions and purposes of this act.

Right to amend, etc., reserved. SECTION 4 [5]. The right to amend or repeal this act is hereby reserved.

SECTION 5 [6]. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 14, 1901.

CHAPTER 456.

AN ACT to amend chapter 295 of the laws of 1901, relating to the time of holding the first town meeting in the town of Atlanta, in Chippewa county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Time of holding first town meeting. SECTION 1. Section 4 of said chapter 295, of the laws of 1901 is hereby amended by striking out the word "second" in the first line thereof, and insert in place thereof the word "fourth," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 4. The first town meeting of said town of Atlanta shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of May A. D. 1901, in the dwelling house formerly owned by one James Arrance, on the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 31 in township 35 north, of range 7 west, of the fourth principal meridian in the state of Wisconsin.

Of meeting to make settlement between towns. SECTION 2. Section 8 of said chapter 295 of the laws of 1901, is hereby amended by striking out the words "May, A. D. 1901," where the same occur in the second and sixth lines thereof and insert in lieu the following: "June A. D. 1901," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 8. The supervisors of the town of Big Bend and the supervisors of the new town of Atlanta shall on the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1901, meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Big Bend, for the purpose of making a settlement between said two towns according to the provision of this act and the
