CHAPTER 48.

AN ACT relating to service by publication and amending section 2640 of the statutes of 1898.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Application for order, when made; what to contain; first publication. SECTION 1. Section 2640 of the statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by adding at the end of the first sentence thereof the words: "within ten days after the date of the affidavit herein required," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 2640. The order mentioned in the preceding section shall be made by the court or a judge thereof within ten days after the date of the affidavit herein required. The application therefor shall be based upon the complaint, duly verified and filed, and an affidavit, together showing the facts required to exist and that the plaintiff is unable, with due diligence, to make service of the summons upon the defendant in respect to whom such order is applied for, and also the postoffice address of such defendant or that the plaintiff is unable, after due diligence, to ascertain it. The order shall direct that service of the summons be made by its publication in a newspaper to be designated as most likely to give notice to the defendant to be served, for such length of time as shall be deemed reasonable, not less than once a week for six weeks, and that on or before the day of the first publication, the plaintiff deposit, in a specified postoffice, a copy of the summons, together with a copy of the complaint, or of a notice of the object of the action as the case may require, securely enclosed in an envelope, the postage duly paid, addressed to the defendant at his postoffice, to be therein named, or a direction that such deposit may be omitted because the defendant's postoffice address cannot be ascertained; or that, at the plaintiff's option, a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint or of the notice aforesaid be delivered to the defendant personally without the state; which, when done, shall have the same effect as a completed publication and mailing. The first publication must be made within three months from the date of such order, and service shall be deemed complete at the expiration of the full period prescribed by the order after the date of the first publication copies having been duly deposited in the postoffice when required.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
